

What do I do if I want to make a complaint?

Firstly talk to a member of staff you feel you can talk to. You can take a friend with you. Tell them what is wrong and see if they can help you with it. They will listen to you and do their best to sort out what is worrying you. If you do not feel happy with the way your complaint has been dealt with you can make a formal complaint.

How do you make a complaint?

1. Talk to a member of staff, Sara, Emma or Steve. Tell them that you want to make a complaint.
2. They will write the complaint in the Complaints Log which is kept in Sara's office.
3. You will be seen by Sara, Emma or Steve to talk about how you are feeling and why. They will take your complaint seriously and will do their best to sort this out within two days.
4. If the complaint is about you Sara, Emma or Steve will want to see you to discuss things. Be truthful.
5. If Sara, Emma or Steve do not sort things out within two school days you can tell one of the people mentioned on the first page. They will help you.

You do not have to tell anyone that you are complaining about them.

If I complain will it make a difference?

The adults at Farney will do their best to ensure that it does make a difference. No one should be made to feel unhappy. Your telling us about how you feel may help others who feel the same, as well as helping yourself. We want all of the Young People who attend Farney Close to feel happy, safe and secure and enjoy their time with us and we will do everything that we can to help you feel this way.

What will happen if I make a complaint?

Any formal complaint from a young person must, in the first place, be made in writing. You will be given help writing the report or dictating it to an adult. It will then be passed on to Sara, Emma or Steve who will deal with the matter.

What if I'm the one in trouble?

You can have a friend or member of staff with you when the Duty Person / Manager sees you.

What sort of things is it ok to complain about?

Sometimes you may wish to complain about something that is worrying you or has made you upset. For example:

You may have been bullied.

You could feel picked on because of your race, size, or sex.

You might not like the food.

You may have been sanctioned and feel it was not fair.

You might think you have been treated unfairly or have been verbally abused.

Someone could have hurt you or said things to you which are upsetting.

What are my rights?

You have a right to be treated fairly. Do not be afraid to complain if you think you are being unfairly treated.

Why should I talk about things that worry me?

If there is anything that is causing you concern you must talk to an adult so that they can do their best to help you feel happier. Speak to an adult sooner rather than later so a little worry does not become a big worry.

What should I do if I think my complaint affects everyone?

Either speak to a member of the school forum or write it down and place it in your Houses forum suggestion box. This issue will then be raised at the next forum meeting. There is a member of the forum on every house.
